

La Frontera Center Elects New Board

Tucson, AZ.
March 19, 2008

Michael Grassinger, CEO and president of The Planning Center, has been elected president of La Frontera Center's board of directors.

Grassinger will lead a board responsible for managing corporate affairs, ensuring that the corporation's pursuits align with its values, and coordinate affairs of the subsidiary corporations as well as participate in fundraising activities.

Additionally, new board officers include: vice president, Celestino Fernandez Ph.D.; treasurer, Patrick O'Hagin; custodial secretary, Frank Valenzuela; recording secretary, Maria Elena McElroy and ex-officio, Butch Hite. There are also 15 other members at large.

La Frontera Center, Inc., is a private, nonprofit community behavioral health center that has served Pima County for 39 years. Originally started as a mental health services center in 1966, it became incorporated two years later as a private nonprofit.

Established in 1975, The Planning Center is a private consulting firm that provides a variety of multidisciplinary planning services including planning, economic market analysis, geospatial services and landscape architecture. For more information call (520) 623-6146 or visit www.azplanningcenter.com.

