

The Planning Center names Masque to Principal

Tucson, AZ.
April 12, 2007

Maria Masque has been named a principal of The Planning Center. Masque's responsibilities include oversight, expansion and marketing of the firm's community planning division.

Masque has been with The Planning Center for over seven years. Her specialties include campus and research park planning; Native American community planning; neighborhood, general and comprehensive plans; citizen participation programs; redevelopment plans, and zoning code updates and revisions. She holds a master's of urban and regional planning from the University of Florida and brings more than 20 years of experience to this position.

Established in 1975, The Planning Center is a private consulting firm that provides a variety of multidisciplinary planning services including planning, economic market analysis, geospatial services and landscape architecture. For more information call (520) 623-6146 or visit www.azplanningcenter.com.