

Raquel Goodrich Joins The Planning Center

Tucson, AZ.
December 3, 2007

The Planning Center has hired Raquel Goodrich as a community planner and project manager. The positions will require her to assist in the preparation of comprehensive and general plans, housing studies, land use and zoning codes, as well as neighborhood and area plans. She will also be responsible for proposal preparation and business development.

Prior to working at The Planning Center, Goodrich spent nearly two years as an information manager for the Maine Department of Conservation.

She earned a master's degree in public administration with a concentration in planning development and environmental sustainability from the University of Maine.

Established in 1975, The Planning Center is a private consulting firm that provides a variety of multidisciplinary planning services including planning, economic market analysis, geospatial services and landscape architecture.
