

The Planning Center Hires New Landscape Architect

Tucson, AZ.
July 1, 2008

Ellen Barth Alster, RLA, has joined The Planning Center as a landscape architect and project manager. She will be responsible for concept development, recreational planning and design, construction documents and construction administration. Alster will also assist with customer relations and business development.

Alster has nearly 25 years of landscape architecture experience. She has practiced in Arizona, Louisiana, Michigan and the Eastern United States. She has also taught landscape design at Pima Community College.

Alster holds a master's degree in landscape architecture from the Harvard University Graduate School of Design and a bachelor's degree in landscape architecture from Michigan State University.

Established in 1975, The Planning Center is a private consulting firm that provides a variety of multidisciplinary planning services including planning, economic market analysis, geospatial services and landscape architecture. For more information, call (520) 623-6146 or visit www.azplanningcenter.com.

